Balochi is surrounded by languages belonging to at least five language families. In the Balochi mainland, it stands in contact with other Iranian Languages and dialects, Persian (Farsi, Dari and Sistani) and Bashlardi in the west and northwest, Pashto in the north and northeast, as well as with the Indo-Aryan languages of Urdu, Panjabi, Lahnda, and Sindhi in the northeast and east. In the Gulf States, Balochi is spoken alongside Arabic (a Semitic Language), and in East Africa, it is in contact with Bantu Languages, such as Swahili. In the central parts of Balochistan, the Dravidian language Brahui has lived in symbiosis with Balochi for centuries, and in Turkmenistan, Balochi is in contact with Turkmen (a Turkic Language). In the diaspora, Balochi is meeting new languages, mainly of the Indo-European family.
